

Altamonte Medical Associates P.A.

Financial Policy

In a setting of rising healthcare costs, it is important to understand your financial responsibilities as a healthcare consumer. Fees charged at this office vary with the complexity of your presenting condition.

Payment in full is expected at the time of service unless previous arrangements are made. For your convenience we accept cash, debit cards, checks and credit cards. Returned checks are subject to $30.00 fee.

It is your responsibility to provide this office with current and accurate insurance information. We will do everything to process your insurance claims for your convenience. However, payment for our services is ultimately your responsibility.

Should collection services be rendered, the patient will be responsible for all collection costs and attorney fees.

Request for medical records are subject to fees according to Florida statute.

Forms to be completed by a physician (ie. FMLA, employment) will cost the patient $30.00.

Please let us know if you have any questions or concerns.
